“ To all Nellies family and loved ones Just to say that we here in Ireland are thinking of you and your families this morning as you finally bid farewell and lay to rest your dear 'Mom' Nellie in Maryrest Cemetary alongside her beloved husband Jimmy. Apart from the immense love and affection that we all had for Nellie and Jimmy her passing brings down a final curtain on that generation of amazing people. Nellie being the last member of all her siblings to pass from this world is particularly poignant at this time. What a legacy they have left in that, from a small humble cottage on the shores of beautiful Lough Eske in the shadow of the Bluestack Mountains in Donegal so many descendants are now to be found spread, not only throughout Ireland but America, Scotland, Wales, UK but far beyond.

While sad that we cannot be with you in person today ,rest assured we will be with you in spirit as you lay your beloved Mother to rest at 11AM.

May Aunt Nellie Rest in Peace.

With Love from
Hugh and Anne McGinty & Family

“ We have so many fond memories of our dear Aunt Nellie; she was one of a kind.

I am blessed to have her as my Godmother, aunt, and friend.

When I came to the U.S, the Hone house was one of the places to visit on my day off, there was always a warm welcome, it felt like home to me.

The family gatherings, for many special occasions, are the good times we look back on now. Nellie and James were the perfect hosts and often led the song and dance sessions.

They were one couple that truly enjoyed their retirement in Fort Meyers, FL. for twenty plus years, we had the pleasure of visiting them several times when the McGinty cousins were over from Donegal, they were always happy to see relatives and friends stop in.

She is now reunited with James and the family and friends that have gone before her.

We extend our sympathy to all Hone families. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this sad time. We will miss her forever.

Love, Mary C. & Tim

“ Nellie will be remembered for many wonderful things, foremost being the matriach of a beautiful family. She raised nine wonderful children and instilled in them all upright morals. She had a keen wit and sense of humor. She always loved talking about her homeland and love of Irish music. She was a kind and gentle person. Im sure she will rest forever in spirit with James....Steve Melli, friend of family.

“ Fond memories of a very dear, kind, and gentle Aunt Nellie. May you rest in peace with James, all of the McGintys, relatives and friends that have gone before you. Your visits to Donegal were fondly awaited and always included a few parties that brought everyone together. Songs a plenty including ' The Hills of Glenswilly' sweetly sung by yourself. My dad would sing 'Two Loves'and Maggie humoured us with' The Darling Black Moustache. Condolences and prayers to all of the Hone family. God Bless, your cousin Anne Hayes xxxx

*To all the Hone Family.
Please accept our deepest condolences on the sad passing of Aunt Nellie. Nellie was such an amazing person. She & Jimmy over their decades together loved all things Irish & always stayed close to Ireland & Donegal. They lived for their trips home to Ireland and we had the great experience of visiting with her and Jimmy in Ft Meyers when we were on holiday in Florida. She was one of a remarkable & courageous generation who laid such great foundations for all of us in her immediate & extended family in the US & in Ireland who are lucky enough to follow in their steps . She will be remembered with love & pride for a life well lived. May she RIP. To all the Hone family, you are in our prayers. From your Irish cousins, Brendan & Pat McGinty xxx*
