“ Norm was a kind sweet strong man and a very caring dear friend. I've just gotten the news after several attempts to contact him through our usual channels. I love him and will always cherish his unwavering support for his friends and his unfailable trust in God no matter how he suffered. To Peg and all his family I'm sorry I wasn't there to comfort you and you need only ask and I will be there for you as Norm was always there for me. Love Dave

“ What I love the most about Norm is his examples of how grace should go down at meals for his grandchildren and his genuine love for the Lord in his service to others.
