“ My condolences to the Thompson and Fernandez families. Lou was one of the nicest guys to ever end up in New Milford. His friendly personality made it a pleasure to stop and talk to him at anytime. I will share a quick story: My dad, Dan, was one the men who met for coffee everyday at Shortrounds luncheonette with Lou, Frank Moriarty, Phil Klocheck and others. It was very important that they met every day to "solve the world's problems." When my dad was diagnosed with Cancer; Lou, Frank, and Phil would pick my dad up at the house so he could continue to enjoy the daily coffee and the friendship. Our family will be for ever grateful for Lou's kindness. He will be missed. Rest in Peace Lou.###imported-begin###Marc Longo###imported-end##

“ I knew Lou from the Church of the Ascension, where he was very active in the food pantry division, lector, and usher for over twenty years. I saw him at many Parish events, such as the Church Annual Mardi-Gras parties, 60th Anniversary Opening Gala, and the Pre Thanksgiving Interfaith Meetings, just to name a few. It was a real pleasure to know him, he is a terrific guy with a great sense of humor. I extend sincere condolences to his family.##imported-begin##Robert Quinn##imported-end##
