

Patricia Mary Pietranera

January 28, 2020

Mrs. Patricia Mary Pietranera, daughter of the late Pasqual Marotta and Adelina De Mais, was born July 12, 1941, in Weehawken, New Jersey. She quietly departed this life on Tuesday, January 28th, at her home in Oradell, NJ, surrounded by her husband and children.

She is survived by her husband of 54 years, John Nicholas Pietranera. They were married on October 30th, 1965 in Lady of Libera Church in West New York, NJ and were blessed with two daughters, Gail and husband Bernard Conroy and Michelle and husband Dave Slack.

The most important people in her life, and whom she cherished the most, were her four granddaughters: Maggie, Emma, Olivia, and Samantha.

Patricia was a registered nurse for over 40 years. She graduated from St. Mary's Nursing School in Hoboken, NJ. She worked as a labor and delivery nurse in Englewood Hospital, then as an OBGYN nurse for Dr. Henry and Carl Saphier for 35 years.

She often reminisced about spending her summers, as a young girl, at the Jersey Shore with her aunts and cousins. She was an avid reader, fiercely protective of her granddaughters, and cherished her home in Oradell where she lived for 42 years.

“ Rest in Peace "Mrs. P." My prayers for my friend Gail and the entire family. I have many memories of being at your house during my college years and beyond. Your family welcomed me for many Christmas Eve dinners and treated me like part of the family. I also remember talking at the kitchen table. You were passionate about what you believed in and will be missed.

“ John, Gail and Michelle, Please accept my deepest sympathy on the passing of Pat. I can close my eyes and still remember a very pregnant Pat walking down the aisle in Oct 68 for my wedding. Those days seem, at times, like yesterday and yet so long ago. Time and distance have not erased my memories of those days. The loss of a Spouse/ Mom/Grandmom is one you never recover from. Life goes on, but, it is forever different. RIP Pat. . Sending love. Dianne
