*Tante Pat was always a joyful member of the Thomaier Clan. We will miss her smiling face and how she always took true interest in our lives on the far and few times we all got to be together. Mom always loved her cousin Bill and his Pat so much. I know she and Mom (and all those who have gone before) are catching up and watching over us. We send our love to Onkel Bill and thank him for keeping a Thomaier tradition of marrying up. May Pat's memory be eternal.

“ I miss all the holidays I spent over her house with Bill and her son Chris. She always treated me very kindly and always kept me supplied with olives and entertainment. I miss her already. ❤️

I was so sorry to hear this sad news. Patti was such a warm, caring person. Even after she retired, she came back to read to the children in all the schools. My condolences to Bill, Chris & family. Condolences to her sister Peggy who I went to school with.
