“ To Pat's family,

Patrick O'Leary was one of the nicest people I'll ever meet in my life. He was the longtime neighbor and best friend to my dad George Macey. Almost every Saturday they would grab lunch together at the River Edge Diner or the Fireplace. They would talk endlessly about a wide variety of topics. Pat would always tease my dad to stop "watching the idiot box" (TV) and would fill him with the latest knowledge he gained from reading a book or newspaper. One of my first memories was when I was three years old - Pat, my father, and I went to the diner. I remember it because Pat gave me a lollipop and it made me so happy. Kindness was always his priority, and even up until late last year it was nice catching up with him over the phone.

My dad's health started failing a few years ago, and he eventually passed away in 2017. While I was away at college during some of this time, Pat was always the first one there to offer to accompany him to the doctor, no matter what. I am forever thankful for how much he cared for my father and his friend.

When I think of good neighbors, I will always think of Pat. From the Macey family, we all send our condolences and thank you, Pat, you will forever be remembered.

*Sincerely,
George Macey Jr.
