“ I met Pennie at Lincoln School and we became friends. My fondest memory of her is when she came to my birthday party and while playing pin the tail on the donkey, she pinned the tail on my dad. We all laughed, especially my dad. May God Bless Pennie's family and comfort them during this difficult time. Denise Doherty Ruiz

OB

Im saddened by her passing...we were coworkers at Citizens First National Bank in the late 80s and became quick friends . We would talk infrequently at times but when we saw or talked it was as if we picked up from the last conversation....Ill truly miss my friend and sister .To the Heywood family may you all find peace and comfort duting this difficult time.
