“ I'm so sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. She is surely in heaven getting everyone together for a dance. She was one a million, helped everyone, had so many parties at her house in Toms River and everyone always felt so at home. I met her when my husband had passed away, and she included me in all the dance tables she would set up in the club houses. She was really missed when she moved away, and nobody got together anymore. It was the end of an era. She always showed her happy side, singing and dancing. Heaven is lucky this week to welcome Pearl home. Gloria Denaro###imported-begin##Gloria Denaro###imported-end##

“ We all were deeply saddened to learn of your dear mother's passing. She was a former member of our Monday Eucharistic Minister team at Community Medical Center. Pearl was loved and respected by all for her great attitude and wonderful sense of humor. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Love from the whole team, especially Millie Voll, Nancy Sutherland and Genie Amabile.##imported-begin##Genie Amabile##imported-end##
