

Peter P Castro

April 4, 2023

Pedro Castro Quijano, born May 1923 to Don Nicoas and Dona Fortunata Quijano in Huacho-Chanca, Peru, recently passed away just shy of his one hundredth birthday in Tampa, Florida having succumbed to cancer. He and his wife Olga, who was overtaken by Covid in 2021, were married seventy years. Together, they emigrated to the New York area in 1961 and spearheaded the sponsorship of Olga's sister, Carmen, the Cardenas, Cespedes and Gambirazio families.

Peter, a skilled tradesman, labored in Peru before bringing his hard-earned talents to New York City where he was gainfully union employed well into his seventies. He was available to any family member to help install a boiler, a lawn sprinkler system, or a fresh hedgerow. Peter is what you would call a jack of all trades, generous and always willing to help others. As a widower his focus was a good Peruvian dish.

Although Peter and Olga were not blessed with their own family, they took to Olga's sisters, Carmen, Maruja, and Andrea's children, grandchildren, and many great grandchildren with their ever-flowing love and generosity. Always present for all family events from births, baptisms, communions, graduations and of course family reunions. Peter had a soft spot for enjoying an afternoon watching soccer with a glass of Pisco and family on his big screen television. He will be sorely missed by Olga's nieces and nephews, Jim, Silvia, Luis,

Liliana, Marisa, and Graciela as well as his entire extended family. God rest his soul.
