“ Peter was a Northern gentleman and a Southern gentleman as well, earning the honorary title “bubba” while he lived in the South. He kept a smile on his face and made friends wherever he was! He leaves a good reputation and fond and lasting memories for all who knew him.

We will miss his calls and friendship. Our prayers are for all of his loved ones during this difficult time.

“ Spent so much time with Pete during high school, happy to reconnect at our last class reunion. There was nobody with a bigger heart or sweeter disposition than Pete. I am so sorry he has passed so soon. I will always remember his warmth and friendship and be sad that he's gone. Most sincere condolences to his family.
