“ I am so sorry for the Urato family's loss, I have only known Pete for about twelve years (the length of time I have been dating his wife's cousin, Allen). Pete was always a gentleman, kind and humorous. He was the trifecta- a good man, a good husband and a good father and grandfather. Pete fought his battle with courage and determination and he never lost hope. Pete's valor was an inspiration. I will always remember Pete as a man I respect and whose spirit I admire. May he truly rest in peace.
