

Philip A. Boag

June 10, 1965 - August 24, 2022

Boag, Philip A., age 57, a longtime resident of New York City, died peacefully with his wife at his side on Wednesday, August 24, 2022. Beloved husband of Christine Malossi. Loving brother of Jeanane Driscoll and her husband Thomas Driscoll, DDS, John Boag and his wife Penny Boag, and Kathleen Boag and her partner Christian Woods. Loving uncle of Thomas Driscoll, Jr., MD, Betsey Driscoll, Gavan Driscoll, and Tara Driscoll; Jake Boag, Riley Boag, Melissa Boag, and Alison Salek. Dear grand-uncle of Amina. Philip was predeceased by his parents Virginia and Eugene Boag. He is survived by his beloved in-laws, Maureen and Daniel Malossi, as well as his brother-in-law Daniel, his wife Kristina and their children Joseph and Liliana, and his two beloved cats Koko and Cheese.

Philip's career as a writer and producer of nonfiction television won him a Television Documentary Emmy in 2004. His work also led him to be designated as a "First Responder," having documented the 9/11 tragedy at Ground Zero for the NY Times. Family and friends are invited to visit Saturday, 1-5PM at the Volk Leber Funeral Home, 789 Teaneck Rd., Teaneck, NJ. A service in celebration of Philip's life will be held on Sunday at 1PM at the funeral home. All are invited to begin arriving at noon. In lieu of flowers donations in Philip's name may be made to Callanish, an organization that creates a healing space for people who have been changed by cancer. www.callanish.org.

I just learned of Phil's passing today. He was a very dear part of my life in LA, when we were so young. I was touched to see all the photos here, of the beautiful life he lived, & saddened to hear he was ill & lost too soon. My heartfelt condolences to his beautiful wife & all the family he adored so much. Fondly, Jade Latimer

I just noticed Philip passed away. I sold him and Christine their wonderful little home on Weber Lane. Over the years, as way too often, friendships slip away. My heart breaks. Diane Silverberg
