“ Ralph was always true to himself. He approached all his endeavors with honesty , intelligence and humor. As a friend he was always true never false; as a family man he loved them above everything else. And as his daughters showed, his love was returned. There is an old expression that such man as Ralph are "Princes". Thus to him we say, "Good Night Sweet Prince. And flights of angels sing thee to thy rest!".##imported-begin##Frank Viggiano##imported-end##

“ To the Fedele Family, I am a 1965 graduate of North Bergen High and not only had Ralph as a teacher but when I student taught at the high school in 1969 Ralph was my mentor teacher. I've always remembered Ralph as a great teacher, mentor and all around nice person. To my chagrin I have lived in Teaneck for 36 years and never looked up Ralph to say hello. My deepest sympathies go out to the family for Ralph's untimely passing but he will live in the memories of the thousands of students he taught, coached and mentored. May his name be a blessing always. Rest in Peace Ralph###imported-begin##Steven L Tesser###imported-end##
