Kieliszek, Raymond F. a longtime resident of Teaneck passed away April 28, 2014. Beloved husband of Eleanor Manning Kieliszek for more than 65 years; devoted father of Mary (deceased), Catherine Cranford, Francis X. Kieliszek, and Claire Preschel, and proud grandfather of seven grandsons: James and Patrick Kieliszek, David Cranford, and Ian, Zachary, Harrison and Noah Preschel. Ray was a World War II veteran, who served in the U.S. Army as a member of the invasion force anchored off Japan. Later he was stationed in Okinawa and Korea.

Ray began a long work history with the New York Telephone Company. From a start as a repairman, he ended his 45-year career at "Ma Bell" in the logistics and troubleshooting departments.

A skilled and elegant ballroom dancer, Ray and his lifetime partner, Eleanor, took the floor at every celebration. Ray was a passionate gardener, tending tomatoes and geraniums as a member of the Teaneck Garden Club. Ray enjoyed the mental challenges of puzzles and cards playing often. He was well known to family and friends for his wry sense of humor. Ray Kieliszek's 92 years, marked by his generous intelligence and energy, have positively influenced both his family and his community.
