

Remigio J Geminiano

February 3, 2019

September 10, 1926 – February 3, 2019

Remigio “Daddy G” or “Tatay” Jimenez Geminiano passed away at home in Teaneck, New Jersey on the morning of Super Bowl Sunday, February 3, 2019. His last moments were spent under the selfless care of his children. To anyone that witnessed it, it wouldn’t be a mystery to see how these last few weeks were the days that he was most blessed. Later in the morning, he was surrounded by his family in person and in heart who spent time in prayer and conversation to remember the beautiful soul that has passed into God’s hands.

Tatay was born on September 10, 1926 in Santa Barbara, Pangasinan, Philippines. He was the loving husband to the late Justina Layag Geminiano and father to Leomeldo, Josephine, Mildred, Alfred, Mary, and Bernadette. A father in law to Teresa, Raquel, Preddie and Don and a grandfather in law to Joe and Deke. Tatay lived long enough to bring joy and love to his many grandchildren, Jon Melvin, Ira, Kim, Christine Joy, Michelle, Nicole, Kate, Aldrin, Katrina, Danielle Justine, Jonathan Caleb, Samantha and Joshua. He was even blessed enough to enjoy the company of his great grandchildren Kayla Sophia and Keira Brie.

Tatay is a veteran of the Philippine Army and served with the American soldiers during the Korean War. He was known as “Jimmy” during his military service. If Tatay could fit in an extra hour in a day, he’d probably spend it dancing with his family or listening to Frank Sinatra's greatest hits. His legacy is that of kindness, gentleness, strength and love that is reflected on the family that he used both hands to build. He will be missed and memories with him enjoyed.

Family and friends are welcome to visit on Saturday 2-6pm at the Volk Leber Funeral Home, 789 Teaneck Road, Teaneck. A funeral service will begin at 5pm. Private cremation will follow.
