“ My deepest sympathy to Richard's family. He was a wonderful teacher and a truly good soul who always gave his best to help his students succeed. I met him in the 80's in one of his Boston workshops. He brought me to the Curtis Institute, where he taught me for two years in the Masters program. What I remember most about him is his passion for opera and his enthusiasm for his work. He was a warm a giving person, and he will be missed by many.
