“ I loved my Uncle Dick and I have missed him all these years. On family occasions he would always ask about my jobs in a genuine, caring way. He was warm and gentle with my children, and always made me feel I had just seen him a few days ago, even if many months had past, which was usually the case. Those were the days of wine and roses, when all my uncles' families were together, living nearby. My dad, Uncle Al, and now Uncle Dick has joined them... No doubt watching Giant games together. I will go see my beloved Uncle Ron soon to share our thoughts. May God reward you Dick for a good life.-- your nephew little Ron
