“ I am simply a stranger who cares very much. I feel heartbroken for the Shoop family. I want them to know many people are praying for them and many people care. I cannot comprehend their pain, but I do know they need to lean on the Lord more than ever before. Jesus is the ONLY way through this pain.

Matthew 5:4 Blessed are those that mourn, for they shall be comforted.

I will keep praying...

“ My thoughts and prayers are with each of you as you attempt to navigate this tragic and incomprehensible time. I will always remember how Richard's smile made the classroom a warm place to be. His generosity, self-deprecating humor, and charm were just some of his most memorable attributes. Whenever he saw me "out and about" in Teaneck, he always made time to pull over and chat for a few moments; he was such a "people person". I always joked that he and Kevin resembled the actor Kevin Bacon so much, that instead of calling them the "Mr. Shoops", I would often call them "the Bacon brothers" or "Mr. Bacon". These are the types of memories of your son and brother that I will carry with me and cherish always. Most fondest and most heartfelt thoughts are with you as you say your goodbyes to Richard this weekend. He lives in your hearts and memories now and as those are limitless pools, his legacy will live on well and for a very long time.

Fondly and with deepest sympathy-

“ Dear Charles, Barbara, Kevin and Lindsey, Our thoughts and prayers are with you in this unbelievable time. We are all totally shocked and in disbelief about what happened. I remember Barb when you and I and Margot took our girl scouts camping, your troop was the shoop troop and rich had come with you because Charlie was working! We had a great time that weekend! Our daughter Kayla was very good friends with Rich and is totally devastated as we all are. Just know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers and if we can do or help with anything we are here. Kathy, Kayla, Ken and Khris Thomas

“ my sincere thoughts are with your precious boy and your family. looking at his photo and reading the kind words from family and friends are what will always stick in my mind for a young man i never knew, but my heart goes out too. i hope he is at peace. the media does not even know this young man, yet made him out to be a troubled young man, who is most likely like all kids his age. may you and your family find peace, i am sure he will always be with you and watching over you all.

“ He was an unusually polite, respectful, kind, and pleasant young man. I always thought to myself, "I hope my boys treat people the way he does when they are his age." In a time when so many of our youth have an attitude or a chip on their shoulder, he was refreshing in his gentle kindness. We knew him from Victor's, and I will think of him every time I go there from now on. My heart goes out to his family. To lose a child is an unnatural pain which the human soul is not equipped to endure. To lose a child like this is simply indescribable.
