

Robert Patrick Byrne

December 17, 2017

BYRNE, ROBERT PATRICK of Leonia, New Jersey, passed away at home on December 17, 2017, four days before his 87th birthday. Robert (Bob) was born in Hoboken, New Jersey on December 21, 1930 to Irish-born parents Margaret (nee Furlong) and Robert Byrne. He grew up part of a large family in the Washington Heights section of Manhattan where he attended St. Rose of Lima School and Power Memorial High School. Following the death of his father in 1949, the family moved to Palisades Park. Bob was a proud veteran of the Korean War and was stationed with the U.S. Army in Germany. He later worked as a facilities engineer with the Waldwick School System, Mercedes-Benz of North America, and the Sony Corporation, from which he retired in 1994. In addition to his parents, Bob is predeceased by his loving wife of 57 years, Anne Lise Brondelsbo Byrne, and six of his ten brothers and sisters, Jim, Rose, John, Tom, Rita and Michael. He is survived by his three sons Robert (and son-in-law Kevin Morrissey, San Francisco, CA), Shawn (White Plains, NY), and Walter (Leonia, NJ), a granddaughter Jessica, his brothers Eugene, William, and Walter Patrick, his sister Marie, and several nieces and nephews.
