“ My Uncle Bob was a quiet, easy-going, gentle man. I always picture him with a smile on his handsome face. He was the youngest of four brothers (Edward, Henry, Emil and Robert). My Dad was the eldest and was very proud of his youngest brother, Bob, who was a war hero present at the beach head at Anzio in WWII. My Uncle Bob had very little to say about his participation in the war, but he will always be a smiling hero to me. My condolences and love go out to my cousins, Joanne and Richard.
