I didn't know Bob real well but always found him to be kind, considerate and always willing to be of assistance. Wish I had spent more time with him.

“ I was deeply saddened when I heard of Bob's passing. He had a great love of singing, a deep devotion to the OCMC, and a quick propensity for laughter. May God rest him and bless Gail along with all who love him.

With sympathy,

“ We have several wonderful memories of spending time with Bob and Gail. One of them is particularly special to us. We are friends of Lisa and John's. My husband, Will and I attended Amy's wedding but I rode up with John and his family and we got caught in traffic and were very late. Will arrived early as he came straight from work. Many of the relatives and friends that had not seen Lisa for quite awhile kept asking her if Will was her husband. Bob, Gail and Lisa kept saying, "No, it's just Will." From then on, Bob gave Will the nickname of "JustWill" and would greet him as such each time we saw him. It always made us smile and feel like part of the family. We are so saddened by his passing and extend our deepest sympathy to the whole family. Much Love, Beth and Will Mansfield
