“ We will always remember going to Aunt Roberts's for coffee and a treat of something. She always worried we were to thin. So she would give Brian a third of the pie to eat. Her love was bigger than life for her family. Everyone should have an Aunt like her growing up!

“ She was always laughing and full of such love of her family. She was never far from her sister Gloria. So now she has joined her family in Heaven and will be watching over her family still on earth. The pain and suffering is done and she can rest. Always loved you.
