“ Dear Carolyn, Please accept my heartfelt condolences on the loss of Bob. I had the privilege of working with Bob at both MS and Lehman and I always knew him as a man of integrity, humility and good humor with a keen knowledge of what was truly important in life. On a number of occasions, we would talk about family and he was so proud of you and your three daughters. We always agreed that that was the true measure of success and wealth and that he was very wealthy indeed. You and your family will be in my prayers. Sincerely, Zeke##imported-begin##John Panzica##imported-end##

“ I have known Bob since mid 80's when he helped me find a job with Roy Wood's Logic Unlimited. Bob was a great colleague and an exceptional technician. He was so smart, we always envied him. For that reason, we teasingly gave him a nickname "Nimbu" which means Lemon in Punjabi. I will personally miss a wonderful friend, a great mentor and an outstanding programmer.##imported-begin##Dal Multani##imported-end##

“ To Carolyn and family. Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Bob and I have been good friends and colleagues since the early 90s and I fondly remember some good times in Atlanta, Shreveport, and New York. He was instrumental in helping me land the best job of my life and I'll always be grateful to him for it. He was a very intelligent man and was extremely respected among his peers for his IT knowledge. He will be missed.##imported-begin##Donnie O'Neal##imported-end##

“ Bob, you were a great friend and I'll miss you dearly. I remember meeting you at your home in California in the late 80's, and working together most of the time since then. I enjoyed our runs together - even though you whooped me at the last Belmar 5. Tuna fishing - great time. And, having a few drinks together - make mine a double vodka rocks. Terrific times together. Carolyn and 'the kids' I'm very happy to have known your husband and dad. He was a great guy - as you know far better than I do. Please let me know any ways I can help.
