“ To My Dear Niece and Daughter of Robert M. Figueroa. I always knew that my brother's passing away would come some day. My joyous moments was spendin three(3)days with him in the hospital before I left for Tucson. Lord, may you keep him in your care and may the perpetual light shine upon him. I will miss him greatly but know that he is in a better place enjoying his heavenly life with his family. Love and sincere sympathy to those who loved him dearly. Iris M.
