

Ronald William Sanger

August 31, 2023

Ronald William Sanger, 76, passed away peacefully on August 31st in Melbourne, FL. He was born in New York, NY to the late Stanley H. and Sabina Sanger before moving to Union City, NJ in 1951. He attended Union City schools graduating from Emerson H.S. in 1965. Ronald moved to Eagle River, WI in 1985 where he participated in avid Christian service and his love for Jesus Christ while attending St. Germain Free Church in St. Germain, WI. He enjoyed a great Christian relationship with his Christian family and loved fishing and the outdoors. Ronald graduated with a B.A. in Elementary Education from the University of Wisconsin and returned to New Jersey working for UPS for 5 years. He then went on to teach Elementary Education in the Jersey City School System for 10 years. Upon retirement, he moved to Florida while experiencing a number of health issues including conquering throat cancer. He had great love from his aunts, uncles, and cousins of the McDonald Family of Bergenfield, NJ, the Kenny Family of Brooklyn, NY, and the Williams Family of Bronx, NY. Ronald was well liked, possessed a warm loving heart for his family and had a sense of humor everyone associated with him enjoyed. He is survived by his dear brothers Stanley M. and his wife Suzanne Sanger of Paramus, NJ and Kenneth J. Sanger of Florence, AL, as well as his loving nephews Matthew and Jonathan Sanger. A private memorial service will be held in his honor.

“ The first time I saw the adult Ron was when he came to Albany Avenue. I was in the kitchen with my parents and the front doorbell rang (if you're from Brooklyn you know no one uses the front door!). I went to the door and there was Ron asking if Mike Kenny was home. I asked brother or father. He said father. I asked who was calling and he said tell him that it's his nephew, I told my dad and he came to the door and Ron said "Hi! Uncle Mike. I'm Ronald Sanger, Binnie's son". Dad just looked at him for a minute, shook his hand and invited him in. They sat around the dining room table for a couple of hours just talking while Mom fed him spaghetti and meatballs (a staple in our house). Dad told him to come back anytime and Ron took him up on it. At least three times a year Ron visited Albany Avenue and Dad so enjoyed the visits. He was a thoughtful, caring and loving person who ended each visit with a prayer. He is now in God's embrace and another chair has been added to the Kenny table! BTW- all the rain we've been getting lately is the reminiscing laughter tears they've all been shedding up there!

Ronald Sanger will forever be remembered at Wyckoff Assembly of God. Ron's deep desire for God's word and also to impart it to others was one of his noted roles. He also served as a commander of the Royal Rangers for several years. Bible Studies came alive under Ron, and those boys, now men, still remember those lessons. He also served as one of our Deacons for several years, taught in our VBS, and picked up kids in the Van. We were sad to see him move away as he was a faithful member from 2007 to 2018. Indeed, he is missed.-
