“ Aunt Prudy had a heart the size of a bus. She was a warm, caring woman with a great sense of humor and strong love of family. My memories of her and Uncle Jack are filled with love and laughter. I never remember her having a cross word for anyone except if you were silly enough to root against her beloved NY Yankees. Enjoy your long awaited reunion with your beautiful mother, siblings and cousins. I am sure there is a wonderful party going on in heaven. Xoxo

“ My deepest condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. When we lose someone we love in death, the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. But remember that the Almighty God sees your tears, he feels your pain, and he will continue with you to comfort and sustain you through this difficult time. Because he cares for you (1 Peter 5:7).
