“ Linda and family, I'm so sorry. Please know my prayers are with you. My memory of Roy was of him lifting his hands up to God during the service for Rebecca. The song was 'I will praise you in this storm.' I was awestruck at his deep faith during this time of heartbreak.

I met MR. Lohsen once at the teaneck building dept with Adam. Adam and i work together in the township - he at the police dept and I work in the municipal court. My family's prayers and condolences go out to all of your in your time of sorrow; but after reading the obituary in the paper, Mr.Lohsen will be remembered as a wonderful husband, loving father and grandfather/ As the wife of a Korean war navy veteran, I thank MR. lohsen postumously for his service to our fine country. Again my prayers and thoughts are with you at this time. Time does heal and all good memories remain forever.
