“ The Bernabe family mourns with sadness the passing of your beloved tatay, Rustico Dimitui. We knew he was ill, prayed for him everyday up to the time of his passing. We also clung to hope that he would recover, but our Lord did not want him to suffer anymore. Sister, everyone dies, but not everyone has really lived life to the fullest just like your tatay. We have never met him, but we fully know that your parents raised their children well as you are a testament as to how well you were raised. He will be missed by everyone who truly loves him, but please find comfort knowing that he has now gone home to our Almighty God and is resting comfortably in His loving arms, fully healed. We extend our heartfelt condolences to you, your sister, Jaina, your son, Scott, his sons-in-law, his precious grandchildren and the entire Dimitui family and we join all of his loved ones in praying for the eternal repose of his soul. You will all continue to be in our thoughts and prayers. We love you.
