

Sagil George

August 1, 2021

Sagil George was born in Ranni, Kerala on May 30th, 1967 to the Late C.G. and Sosamma George. He came to live in the Bronx, New York on December 24, 1985 at the young age of 18. On August 30, 1993, he married the love of his life, Jessy in Bhopal, India and together had two daughters, Stephanie and Priya. As a family, they lived in New Rochelle, New York and finally relocated to Bergenfield, New Jersey. Sagil was a hard worker who worked at various companies over the years and most recently worked at Werfen Laboratory as a Senior Team Leader/Project Manager.

Sagil was a caring, devoted husband, father, brother, uncle, friend and son. He was a social butterfly who loved taking pictures, telling jokes and was always the life of the party. One of the things Sagil took great pride in was his backyard garden that mesmerized his friends and family. He always loved to cook and was a great host to many parties. Sagil was selfless and always willing to lend a helping hand. Be it family or friends he made sure everyone was well taken care of.

“ Sagil was always cheerful, moving around, meeting, helping and bonding with people. It is difficult to believe this, so maybe better not. He continues to be with us in our thoughts and actions.

We know that even though he's gone, he is still there with us, in the leaves of the plants that he planted, in the flowers that bloom in full swing in the spring, in the meals we shared together.

Prayers to the Almighty to grant him eternal Rest in Peace and give courage to the family including Jessy, Stephanie and Priyanka to bear the great loss and continue Sagil's dreams.

*With heartfelt condolences and fond remembrance from Bhopal,

“ Sagil was my best friend. He treated me like more than a buddy, more than a brother during my visit to the US. I stayed with him in his house; it was an honor in my life. A loving family that welcomed and cared for me as if they were part of mine-an amazing memory in my life!

Once Sagil has taken me to visit Pocono hills and he always found time to care for me even though he was busy with his other friends and family. Sagil, you are a shining example of how to keep friendships despite the distance or religion.

You will always be in our hearts. Our prayers are with you. May he Rest in Peace.

“Sajichayan is the youngest son of my loving Ammamma and Georgettan, in whose care I grew up as a child. Though I have only vague memories of those early years of my life, I cherish the love of Ammamma’s family. I still feel one among them when her children share the memories of those good old days. They used to take me to their relatives’ houses and of all the savouries that Ammamma cooked, I enjoyed kanji, chakka and moru curry the most. Sajichayan’s home thus became my second home.

One of my earliest memories of Sajichayan is his collection of audio cassettes. Being the ever- charismatic person he was, I must admit that he, along with Sunnychayan, Valsachechi, Akkammachechi and Omanachechi gave my brother Santosh and I a childhood that will never lose its warmth.

Transitioning into adulthood, I am able to clearly recall the gifts that the Georges brought for us from the US. Later as a mature adult, my memories are filled with Sajichayan visiting my ageing parents and how in a matter of seconds he is able to lighten their moods. A man of much charm with enchanting eyes, he is sure to have left an indelible imprint in all those he has met. My son recalls him as “Saji Uncle with starry eyes”. I vividly remember the debonair and handsome Sajichayan at his daughter’s ‘Sweet Sixteen Party’ which I too attended.

An epitome of love, grace and charm, Sajichayan was a brother-figure to all. The grief of his demise makes me question why he had to be so good an individual making his parting a heartbreaking one.

It deeply hurts to say this, but the only consolation we can have is that he has fulfilled the lines that he recently sang “nee mathram mathi enikku”... Yes, he wished for it. Let’s be reassured that he is today seated on the Almighty’s lap in the heavenly abode.

“ Sagil George was a man of wonderful personality with always a smile on his face. He was a great friend to any age group. I have so much good memories about him. Whenever I call my uncle Sam Alakattil in the weekends, he is either at Sagil's house or Sagil is at his house. Sagil was there for any help at any time around the clock. I still remember singing at his house for a Christmas party of the social club. His energy is super. His physical presence will surely be missed. But his memories will live in our hearts. Thank you dear and may your departed soul Rest In Peace!!

“ Sagil.....I "don't believe" you've left your beautiful family, relatives, and friends; how could this be??....."Sheerly unfathomable!"

You allowed us to grieve with you 20 years ago on 9/11.....now 20 years later, may the Good Lord allows us to grieve for you!

*Thanks for the good times professionally, and socially!

“ I met Mr. George when I was 13, as a friend Priyanka had brought home from school. I used to run up his phone bill chatting with Priya for hours on end throughout the week. He was always the sweetest and funniest dad, always welcoming me into his home with a big smile and a lecture on how community college is the best choice of all haha. Mr. George clearly loved his girls beyond measure, and I can only imagine his pride in seeing them achieve such amazing goals thus far in life. I can only think to attribute those achievements to having had such supportive parents who loved them unconditionally and guided them in the right direction. I know Sagil is in an absolute paradise now, but it pains me deeply to no longer know him in this life. I pray Priya, Stephanie, and Mrs. George find peace in knowing Sagil loved you all more than life itself, and no distance nor time will ever change that. I will pray for you all every single day.

*With all my love,
