“ Growing up, Mr. Regidor/ Uncle was the quiet, stern, proud dad that was always there for most if not all of Nette’s extracurricular events. The dad that made sure we got home or to our dorm safe. For Nette’s 7th or 8th birthday, he was brave to bring a bunch of her friends, piling us all in the station wagon to attend her party. He has truly made his mark as a wonderful and great person.

“ Sir Sergio Regidor ", I've known him as the "Good Samaritan", a mentor and like a father ,he was not only a visionary leader but also a compassionate guide who inspired countless individuals to reach for their dreams.

Countless of inspirational advices he shared whenever he visited her hometown in the Philippines.

I still recall the day I first met sir Sergio – he saw potential in me that I didn't even know existed and believed in me when I doubted myself. His unwavering support financially and encouragement shaped not only my career but also my outlook on life – giving me a positive perspective that in turn drove my ambition not only for myself but also to do him proud.

Many of you may have experienced sir Sergio Regidor legendary storytelling abilities. Whether recounting tales of triumph or adversity, He had a gift for weaving words that captivated our minds, touched our souls, and truly made us think and feel.

As we say goodbye to sir Sergio let us carry forward the lessons he imparted and the values he embodied. Though he may no longer walk beside us, his legacy of inspiration and empowerment will live on in the lives he touched and we can all carry that legacy forward to inspire the next generation.

To the family of sir Sergio Regidor my deepest sympathy and prayers, with God I am forever grateful."

“ Dear kuya serge

We can hardly find the words to express the depth of sorrow we feel during this incredibly difficult time. You have been a source of kindness, laughter, and light in our family, and your presence will truly be missed.

Your love, generosity, and support have touched our hearts in ways we cannot fully articulate. Remembering the moments we shared brings both comfort and grief. You had a unique way of making everyone feel valued and cherished, and for that, we are all grateful.

As we navigate this painful journey, please know that your spirit will live on in our memories. We will forever hold you dear in our hearts, sharing stories and laughter as a testament to the beautiful life you lived.

Thank you for being such a wonderful brother-in-law and a loving part of our family. You will never be forgotten.

With all our love Balderas Dizon and De Guzman Family

“ He was a brother that I truly respect and love. He was somebody to look up to. I could say nothing less of him. He was a person I could confide. A lot of conversations and drinking buddy. I will greatly miss him.

“Serge departed from this world peacefully after going through a lot in the hospital, enduring 3 procedures. He was jovial as before, being confined in the hospital did not change that even as he felt extreme pain on his foot always. Nurses would say that he’s adorable, sweet and cute. He also had a friendly bond with his doctors beyond the doctor-patient relationship especially with cardiologist Dr. Ebrahim Issa and Dr. Raymond Villonco. Serge was my rock , my best friend, the man of my life and the mate of my soul. I thank God that he blessed me with a wonderful and amazing man in my life. Now that he was called by our Creator, his memory will surely linger forever in my heart.
