

Sharon Elizabeth Lawrence

February 20, 1949 - June 3, 2013

Sharon Elizabeth Lawrence was born in Richmond, Virginia February 20, 1949. She was the first of two to the union of Osborne Lloyd and Alice Victoria (nee London) Lawrence. They provided a loving home on Convent Avenue in New York City at the time. Later moving to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania she attended early schooling under Catholic Nuns. She quickly learned that God blessed her with weapons for life which were her pen and persistent attitude (marching to the beat of her own drum). She was always willing to help out family and friends at a drop of a hat. Even if it meant traveling down I-95 at 45 mph stressing out passengers and other drivers.

The family then moved to New Jersey where she graduated from Teaneck High School in 1967. She received a scholarship from Lady's Home Journal to attend Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Joining Mobil Corporation for a spell she went on to become a New York City Corrections Officer where she retired.

She enjoyed writing and reading articles and then passing on the valuable information. She was very passionate about her family.

Sharon is predeceased by her father Osborne, her mother Alice, and her sister Lucinda Carolyn (nee Lawrence) Shay.

Sharon leaves to cherish her loving memories of joy and laughter, her devoted and loving son Michael Osborne Lawrence of New Milford, NJ, and a host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.
