

Sidoney Marie Chin

April 11, 2021

Sidoney Marie Chin, age 31, daughter of Glen A. Chin and Jewel V. Thompson-Chin, went home to be with the Lord on Sunday, April 11, 2021, at Hackensack University Medical Center. Sidoney was surrounded by her loving parents and close friends when she died of a rare and unanticipated illness. Sidoney resided in Edgewater, NJ and worked as an Associate Director of Human Resources for the Guggenheim Foundation and Museum in New York City for the past six years. Sidoney was a baptized member of the Ridgefield Park Reformed Presbyterian Church in Ridgefield Park, NJ, and served on various committees. Sidoney was born on July 11, 1989 at St. Barnabas Hospital in Livingston, NJ and spent her formative years in Paterson and Teaneck. She attended Hackensack Christian School, Thomas Jefferson Middle School, and Teaneck High School, graduating in 2007. Sidoney was an excellent student and loved to dance. She was in the Arts Academy, a member of the Teaneck High School Terpsichorean Dance Troupe and was a Captain on the THS Flag Twirler Squad. Upon graduating high school, Sidoney attended Northeastern University and graduated in 2012 with a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration, with a concentration in Human Resources. While at Northeastern, she participated in cooperative work experiences and volunteered in community service work in Mississippi after Hurricane Katrina and later worked and studied in Costa Rica. After graduation, she worked for Charles River Analytics in Cambridge, MA as a Computer Technology Personnel Recruiter, and then came back to the NY/NJ area to work for the Guggenheim Foundation. Sidoney maintained an active lifestyle, swimming, skiing, camping, and hiking. Her favorite personal interests included arts and entertainment, reading, and travel, particularly to beach locations with her toes in the sand! Sidoney was an amazing and loving daughter. She will be remembered by her family and friends as an incredibly generous person and a loyal friend. She was patient and practical, had a wry sense of humor, and was very smart. She possessed a beautiful, quiet soul and a brilliant smile. Above all she was a faithful believer in the Lord Jesus Christ. Sidoney is survived by her paternal grandparents, Alvin and Gloria Chin; Aunts and Uncles: Charles and Cordis Thompson, Clifford and Betty Mitchem, Eamonn and Brenda Chin, and Paul and Shawntal Chin. She is also survived by a host of beloved cousins and cherished friends. She is preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Leonard and Anna Thompson. The Chin family will receive relatives and friends, Friday April 23, 2021 from 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm and from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm at the Volk Leber Funeral Home, 789 Teaneck Road, Teaneck, NJ 07666. Mask wearing and social distancing will be observed. A Funeral Service will be held on Saturday, April 24, 2021 at 10:00 am at the Reformed Church of Bronxville, 180 Pondfield Road, Bronxville, NY 10708. Interment will take place following the service at the Reformed Presbyterian Cemetery across the street from the Church. Due to NY State Covid-19 restrictions, the family of Sidoney Chin respectfully requests that non-family members participate in honoring her memory via the virtual streaming of the funeral service. Further information will be available on the Volk Leber Funeral Home website, volkleber.com.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Sidoney's memory to the NJ Sharing Network Foundation at 691 Central Avenue, New Providence, NJ 07974 (908-516-5429) for saving lives through organ and tissue donation; or the Reformed Presbyterian Seminary, 7418 Penn Ave, Pittsburgh, PA 15208.

“ Dear Jewel & Glen
Our hearts go out to you both and condolences on the loss of your beautiful daughter.
We will pray that you both find the strength to get through this awful time and in time you will be able to focus on all the joy that Sidoney brought to you both and family & friends.
Her final act to think of others shows everything we need to know about her wonderful soul.

“ Dear Glen and Jewel,
I am just so grateful that I had the opportunity to meet Sidoney On our very first cruise. She was such a joy to be around. I cracked up laughing watching her and Janine together They were having so much fun. The giggling and running the opposite way of all things reunion and ole folk always made me laugh. I took some very wonderful pictures of the two of them. So thankful I got to meet such a bright and shiny star so full of life, full of light, full of joy. She will certainly be missed but her light remains in all of us who had the privilege of meeting her. My love to you both.

“ I never met Sidoney in person, but came to know her through her father, Glen, a coworker at Girl Scouts of the USA. Because of our connection to Jamaica, we shared many stories. On my trips home I would bring Sidoney Jamaican dolls, and so she began a collection. She never failed to say thank you.

Life is so fickle and the years go by so fast. I am sure she lived a full one, but most importantly I am sure she was a joy for others to be around.

Stay strong Glen and Jewel; and rest in peace Sidoney, or as we Jamaicans say "walk good."

“ I have wonderful memories of the summer spa visits Sidoney and I shared on Martha's Vineyard. Since Sidoney is my only godchild and our birthdays are one day apart, what better way to celebrate another year together than massages at the Sea Spa Salon followed by something yummy afterwards. I will always cherish those times we had to catch up with each other and share our thoughts and visions for the future. Our sweet Sidoney has begun her eternal future and I miss her, but I rejoice for her as well and I look forward to our grand heavenly reunion. Deborah Hipkins

Dear Mr. Chin and Mrs. Thompson-Chin, I was a colleague of Sidoney's at the Guggenheim. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. Sidoney was unflappable, discrete, responsive, and very helpful during some challenging times--a true human resources professional. She holds a special place in my memory, as she was one of the first people I told I was expecting a baby. She helped me navigate maternity leave and asked for me to send her a photo of the baby once she was born. Now that I am a parent of a 7-month old, I truly can't imagine the pain you must be feeling. I am so sorry that you have suffered this loss. Wishing you peace and courage. Elizabeth Zechella

Dear Mr. Chin and Mrs. Thompson-Chin,

*Please know that you will always be in my prayers. I pray that God grant you the strength to face each new day without your beautiful, precious daughter.
I had the absolute pleasure of working with Sidoney for the past 6 years. I will cherish fond memories of her - such as lunch in the park near work, talking about her weekend trips to Martha's Vineyard or the beach, her smile whenever she said that she was going on vacation, and I would say "have fun, and be safe." She was remarkable in every way, and I feel blessed to have known her. May her soul rest in peace...*

Thank you all for your special messages of care, comfort, and love to Jewel and myself. The words means so much. Sidoney was a special person and you probably heard about her from Jewel or myself as we raised her over the years. We will miss her a lot. You all are also part of our good memories and we thank you for times we had. we also want to leave with you a sermon that was special to us this morning. If you get a chance to listen. Blessings to you all. Glen and Jewel
