

Sonia Carol Tross

November 22, 1951 - March 26, 2018

Sonia Carol Tross was born November 22, 1951 in Charleston, Nevis WI, to Cassandra and Edward Jeffers. If anyone knew Sonia, they knew the love she had for the Lord and his word, for her children Verta and Spencer Tross, her sisters, Joan Noisette, Jean Podd and Shirley Lynch. Her nieces and nephews, Malcolm, Alexander, Tracey, Charlene, Guy Jr. Nelson Jr. Diane, Shari, Bianca, Vance, Malcolm Jr., Ayannah and the newest addition Daniella. This also includes all her cousins in England and here in the United States along with close friends who were considered family.

Sonia immigrated to the United Kingdom at the age of 6 and also gave her life to the Lord at the same age. After she finished High School, Sonia attended Fashion Design School and was the in house clothing designer for her mom and sisters. Sonia resided in Leeds with her family until the age of 19 where she met her husband, Spencer Tross, who was on vacation to visit his uncle. They instantly fell in love and within 3 weeks were married. Sonia then immigrated to the United States, where they lived in Brooklyn until 1977 and then they moved to Fort Lee, NJ. They later moved to Englewood, NJ in 1986 where they remained and raised their children. They were married for 28 years until the premature passing of her husband in 1998. Sonia worked in banking for 26 years; in 2015 she graduated with an Associate's Degree in Accounting and also was a licensed Insurance Agent. However, the positions that she held most dearly was her time as a Sunday School Superintendent at Englewood Assembly of God, a Deaconess at Christ Church, ministering to young women at her home Bible Study, Worshipping the Lord and her most recent membership at Community Baptist Church. Though we know that she is with the Lord, her presence will be deeply missed!

The wake will be held from 6 PM to 9 Pm at Volk-Leber Funeral Home in Teaneck. The funeral will be Wednesday, at 11 AM at Community Baptist Church, followed by burial at George Washington Cemetery, Paramus, NJ.
