

Sookiah Boodoram

July 4, 2018

Sookiah Boodoram was born on the 27th of August, 1935 in Barataria, Trinidad. She was the third child of nine children for Mr. and Mrs. Ramdhanie. She later married Balkaran Boodoram on June 1st, 1952. Together, they've raised five sons and three daughters. During the ailing years of her beloved husband, Sookie built her own poultry business. She became a successful entrepreneur for her family. In April of 1987, she migrated to the United States where she settled in Englewood, New Jersey. There she spent time with her nine grandchildren and became a great grandmother to two great granddaughters. Sookiah was the mother-in-law of Puran, Terry, Shaida and Meera. Also to ex daughter-in-law, Hazra and grandmother-in-law to grandson-in-law Adam and Jose. Sookie was one of the strongest and kindest person you could ever meet. She opened her heart and home to many over the years and will be surely missed.

She is survived by her four sons: Rohan, Govin, Vijay and Visham. Her daughters: Claire, Sabita, and Vashti. Her grandchildren: Natasha, Amanda. Amrit, Ashley, Crystal, Brandon, Taylor, Alia and Cayden. Her great granddaughters Alexa and Aria. She is also survived by her three sisters: Sonia, Batie, and Doris and one brother Sahadeo as well as many more relatives in the US and Trinidad. Her eldest son Premchan is also deceased. Rest in Peace Mama, we will always love you.
