“ I met Stephanie at the start of junior high and we graduated West Essex H.S. together. I have only fond memories of Stephanie during the years that we were friends. She had a warm, playful spirit and I rarely remember her without a smile on her face. I am just now learning of her battle and loss. May her children grow in the same, beautiful spirit that was their mother's. With sympathy, Alana Pentz###imported-begin##Alana Pentz###imported-end##

“ Steph always said she was my "biggest fan" as I was starting out my musical theater career, but now I'm HER "biggest fan". Her courage and determination was inspiring and unforgettable. The love for her family, was priceless. I hope I can live to be half the daughter, wife and mother Stephanie was. All my love,
