

T. S. Varughese

December 2, 2014

Tharuvelimannil Scaria Varughese (also known as Avarachen), was born on January 18, 1936 in Eraviperoor, Thiruvalla, Kerala, India to the late Mathai Skariah and Mariamma Skariah. After completing his education, he worked for fourteen years at the Mar Thoma Sunday School Samajam as a manager under the Sabha office. On January 20, 1969, he married Aleyamma Mathew (Elsie) of Mylackal House, Mundiapally. He came to the United States in October 1972 and worked for the New York City Department of Corrections until he retired in 2000.

Avarachen was a God-fearing man who motivated others with his spiritual nature. His loving, compassionate and caring nature ensured that he opened his house to family and friends and everyone that crossed his path. He always greeted others with a warm smile on his face. He was effusive with his charitable works for the community both in the U.S and India.

Avarachen, an active member of St. Peter's Mar Thoma Church in Teaneck, NJ for over 25 years was a God loving and devoted Christian. From his early days he was devoted to the Mar Thoma Church and held numerous positions. He was instrumental in the Mar Thoma churches beginnings in the Tri-State area.

Avarachen is survived by his beloved wife, Aleyamma Varughese (Elsie), his three children Mini, Gini, and Zach, as well as his sons-in-law Shaju, Paul and daughter-in-law Leena. He was a doting grandfather to his six grandchildren: Victoria, Jonathan, Allison, Nathaniel, Logan, and Miranda. He is further survived by his twin brother T.S. Mathai, younger brother T.S. Chacko, older sister Hannah Varughese and younger sister Saramma Abraham. Avarachen is predeceased by his older sister Mariamma Abraham. He also leaves behind numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.
