“ Having had the joy and pleasure of knowing Thelma over thirty years I feel a deep sadness at her passing. We worked together at a large food producing company in Carlstadt nearly twenty years. She started as an executive secretary. With her brilliant mind, compassion, people and organizational skills she became VP of Sales. Her willingness to take on any and all tasks and responsibilities contributed greatly to the company's growth and successes.

She then followed her heart joining the Center for Food Action, helping manage that organization's success and growth from 2 to 8 locations all the while assisting thousands of families to obtain needed food, housing assistance, guidance and health care.

All who knew Thelma, loved her. All who knew her admired and respected her personal dedication of easing the suffering of the less fortunate.

Thelma had beauty, intelligence and an enormous heart - rarely seen in one's lifetime.

If Angels walk on earth, Thelma was surely one of them.

“ Aunt Thelma, it was a privilege to stroke your hair, kiss your cheek, and say good-bye. I've known you my whole life, and I will have an emptiness where you once were. To my cousins, I'm always here if you need me.

“ Ah, dearest Thelma. You are a permanent candle in my heart -- an unwitting light of loveliness and grace in so many ways. You were tiny, but oh-so-tough, proud and positive, resilient and uncomplaining, gracious and generous. Indeed --you are perhaps the closest I've known to a Beautiful Soul. I shall forever draw on the strength you shared and the love you showed.
