Thomas Henry Batton Sr., beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend, passed away peacefully on April 29, 2026, at the age of 74, surrounded by his loving family.

Thomas was a man of larger-than-life personality, known for his strength, generosity, and deep commitment to those around him. Whether he was coaching football, building a home with his own hands, or simply enjoying a bowl of linguini with white clam sauce, he brought passion, humor, and heart into everything he did.
