“ Tom was a wonderful, special friend for over 60 years. We treasure so many memories of fun times; weekends at the Jersey shore, dinners out and at our homes.

Tom and Bob's Army National Guard unit was called to active duty during the Berlin crisis-they would drive home in Tom's T-Bird every other weekend and return on Sunday nights. He would call the four of us "the same old Sunday night crowd."

He was the funniest-ever friend, with a witty comment casually thrown into any conversation. He will be missed by so many, but we are blessed with so many happy memories.
