“ I had the privilege of working with Tom for over 10 years. We traveled together quite often, skied together, ran together, worked out together, drank many a cool beverage together, enjoyed fine meals and spent many hours talking about our lives, our families and sharing a lot of laughter. Even after our work lives went in different directions we always made a point of touching base every few months to get caught up on what we both were doing. He always spoke about his great family and was so proud of his children and his wife. He never had a mean thing to say about anyone and always looked on the bright side of every situation. I tried to get him to work for my company this past year but he was happy working for Synergy. I was hoping he and I could get out skiing this coming season and I was ready to reach out to him to start to make some plans. That will not be happening and I am very sad, He was one of a few good friends I have met while working and his passing will leave a void in my life. This is a tragedy, and my heart goes out to his family. Marianne, Tom always praised you when he spoke of his spouse. Allison and Kevin, your dad was so proud of you both, he always gave me an update of what you were doing. He was a great, warm, sincere, man who always brought a smile to my face when we spoke or met. I will miss him dearly. God bless your family.

“ I had the great fortune of working with Tom and he was truly one of a kind. He was a great friend and a fantastic "coach" who helped me through the training of my first marathon. He encouraged me to make sure to enjoy the sights and sounds and even the pain of the race while never forgetting that I was doing something most people couldn't or wouldn't ever experience. It was a gift! He had such a great spirit and love of life and was so passionate and inspiring. One thing that I will always remember was how much he loved his family. Although I never met them, I felt like I knew Marianne, Allison and Kevin. He was so truly proud of his kids and wanted the absolute best for them. He would proudly share photos and boast over every accomplishment. He was so proud of both of his children! I will pray for peace as you all cope with this immense loss. Rest in peace my friend. I hope that the running paths in heaven are flat and wide with frosty beers waiting at the finish line.

Many years ago when we were a young group of friends working in Stop & Shop in Vailsburg we met Tommy he was such a fun loving guy and just a great person and friend. We shared many beers and many laughs . Our thoughts and prayers are with Tommy's family at this very sad time. May his spirit live on in your hearts always. With sympathies Mike and Sue Post
