“ Dear Merry, Tamara, Rosemary, Casey and Melissa, please accept our deepest sympathies of the loss of Tom. I had the honor and pleasure to call Tom friend. He was one of the finest people I ever knew. He set the bar high naturally as he was very dedicated, loyal, caring, loving, conscientious and very intelligent. I'll always remember his bright big smile. He was always positive. I had the honor to play in a few bands with Tom. He was a great Trumpet player and he was very passionate about music. We will never forget Tom and we will keep him and you in our prayers.

Sincerely and respectfully,

“ Dear Merry,
I don't know if you remember me, but I lived in HP 1980-1990 on Martha Rd. I met you on several occasions and wanted to send my condolences. I was so sad to see in the paper this morning that your husband Tom passed away. I'm sure the support of your family and friends will help you get through this difficult time.
Sincerely,
Jane Maier
