“ To dear Tommy’s family and friends, we are so sorry to hear of his passing to his eternal reward to be united with his late Eileen, boys and all his departed family. He was a proud Irishman and loved his family and life. I will never forget Tommy and Eileen’s hospitality back in the day. I was worried when Tommy was not reading my messages nor answering my calls. We were shocked when we saw his obituary today. Ar dheis de ar a anam dílis. (May his soul rest in peace). Clem Dempsey and mother Ita Dempsey, Fermoy, Co Cork, Ireland. X🇮🇪

Uncle Tommy was the most kind, compassionate and caring person one would ever meet. When his sister, Mary, my mom, was on hospice, he called every day to see not only how she was doing, but how we were holding up. He did the same for my dad. He came to our wedding, and it was always a joy to see him and Eileen on one of their vacations, where they would pop by for a chat.

We'd like to thank Kathy and family for the wonderful care they gave him after Aunt Eileen's passing, you are forever in our hearts!

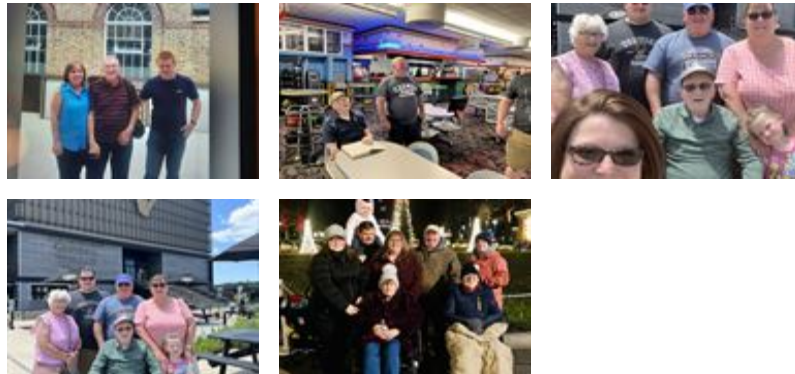

God bless, Tommy, may you rest in peace with your beloved family.

*Thank you Tommy for all the great memories I have of my visits to Kathy and Eamon's in NY.
We had some great chats, not all about Ireland but always interesting.
You were a unique, friendly, courteous and above all a true gentleman.
We miss you Tommy.
May your gentle soul rest in peace with your family.
Condolences to all.
Margaret and the Garry family.
