“ Mr. and Mrs. Hudson, Steve, Dave and Maryellen - I only just heard about Timmy's passing. I can't adequately express my sorrow for your loss. My memory of Timmy will always be of a young boy with a perpetual smile. You are in my thoughts.

“ What a tribute to a wonderful family. Mr. and Mrs. Hudson no parent ever want to bury a child. God sees the whole picture and we only see one frame. Tim had a smile that lit up a room as well as a heart. You raised him to love as Christ loved without hesitation or restraint. This gift of love he lavished on my dear friend Bree. She had seen much romantic heartache and Tim's love healed and wooed her. I was thrilled when she told me Tim had proposed! I have never known such love and treasured each photo and story she shared of their adventures. It is most difficult when someone passes that has so much of life in them and such a uncharted future. Your family and Bree know better than anyone that Tim spread joy, smiles and laughter. He would not want the tears and sorrow to last too long. As you say goodbye to Tim's visible body as believers be comforted that he is with our Father and I am confident one day you will be together again.

Light and love to you all. Take your time. Let Tim's legacy of love live on through all of you!

Blessing and hugs to all of you! xoxoxo

“ One time "Wanted Dead or Alive" by Bon Jovi was playing in the office & Tim was doing his work, not saying a word. Then came the line "I've seen a million faces"...Tim without missing a beat said, "And I'm pretty sure he rocked 'em all." Then walked out of the office. My husband and I just laughed and laughed. Now, WHENEVER that song comes on I think of Tim and I smile. Tim had a WONDERFUL sense of humor and I LOVED his smile. I will miss my friend.

“ Bree is my dear friend and I didn't know Tim that well, but I did know the love he had for his wife. Their marriage and love seemed like a fairy tale full of adventure and romance. He was always taking care of her and Bree always only spoke of her husband with pure fondness. When I did hang out with Tim he always had a smile and was dotting on her.

RIP Tim and know that your wife is surrounded by love and support. We will watch over her, as I'm sure you will be doing from the stars above.

"He Is Not Dead

*I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead. He is just away.
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you—oh you, who the wildest yearn
For an old-time step, and the glad return,
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here.
Think of him still as the same. I say,
He is not dead—he is just away.”

What a beautiful tribute film for a very loving and special man. I never got to meet Bree or Tim, but they were kind enough to open their hearts to all of us on Face Book! I have such sorrow for Bree, but mostly that this World of ours has lost yet another wonderful soul. Bree know Tim lives through all of his family and those he helped with his passing! Too Tim's family I am sorry, no words can express what I know all of you must feel losing a son and brother. With the way things are in our World today, it was refreshing to see two people love each other so deeply! I know only the good die young, and Tim was a human Angel on Earth. Only to return to be with all the other Angels in Heaven. Bree if you were loved only for a minute, it's more then most get in a lifetime. May Peace come to all who Loved Tim. God Bless all of you!

We learn in our study of the craft of acting that in the end "no acting" is a goal. How does that make sense. We must "appear" to be real portraying our characters. We must be present in all that we do....well, there was no acting in this video. (beautifully done). What becomes evident is the experiences of a man, Tim and his family and his wife, Bree....enjoying life, every minute...Tim is revealed as a giver of joy to all those around him....what a tribute. What an honor to share in the viewing of this video....thank you. May God's mercy and blessings come to all of you ! There was no acting.....
