Vernon was born on December 18, 1940 in Jamaica. After graduating from High School, he worked in the Hospitality industry in the Food and Beverages sector.

Vernon married Eva Bailey in 1969 and migrated to the US in 1971 to pursue a better life. He was a loving and caring person, respectful, private, and humble.

Vernon continued working in the Hospitality industry for Sheraton Hotel. While working his fulltime job, he perused different part time opportunities in sales and investment working for New York life and Al Williams. He was passionate about working for himself and always looked for new business opportunities. Vernon was also passionate about cooking. He shied away from cooking the traditional Jamaican foods such as Rice & Peas, Curry Goat, Oxtail, Brown Stew Chicken, and Akees and Saltfish but gravitated to Gourmet dishes such as Shrimp Scampi, Filet Mignon, and Lobster Thermidor just to name a few. In the early 2000's Vernon retired and continued doing what he loved most – He eventually opened an online women clothing store and a store front selling women apparels.

Vernon liked going to the racetrack but settled on being a lifelong New York sport fan routing for the NY Giants, Jets, Yankees, Mets, Knicks, and Nets. Vernon will be missed by his family well as all of his friends that he has met throughout his life.

Margaret Dyer - - Vernon, may you Sleep In Perfect Peace. I enjoyed the time I spent in your company. I always admired Vernon as articulate especially when he is holding a bottle of wine, and even opening a bottle of champagne...he had the skill of a wine connoisseur. Vernon was very sociable, always smiling and helping whether it was at Christmas or Thanksgiving Dinner or any other family get-together.
