“ I met Vinnie at Rockleigh golf course in the 1970's and we had a gang of guys that played every weekend like clockwork for years. I can tell you that when I go back to that time in my life, they were the very best memories and Vinnie was at the forefront of them.##imported-begin##Gary Kahan##imported-end##

“ Vincent...I will never forget you. It was your guidance that started my career, it was your valient fight against this horrible disease that gives me the perserverance and strength to battle it every day for the past five years. You and my Dad are together now, just as you were growing up, just as you were in Saipan during WWII and just as the two of you were whenever you were together. He left us a few months ago and I know he's waiting for you. You'll know when you hear "Hey Sonny"...up here!" God bless you my dear cousin and thank you all of the wonderful memories. Love, forever....Jerry##imported-begin##Jerry Morano##imported-end##
