

Violet Hyatt

November 6, 2011

Hyatt, Violet wife of the late Raymond Hyatt, former Superintendent of Public Works in West New York, N.J. Violet Hyatt (nee Kozam) born on March 25, 1924 to Sarah and David Kozam passed away on November 6, 2011. Violet was predeceased by her sisters Nora Abdella and Mary Barakat and her brothers Ned and Ernest Kozam. She was dearly loved by her many nieces and nephews. Violet was better known as "Sew Sew". She began sewing at the age of 14. She never viewed it as a job; she loved it and she did it well. Violet dearly loved her son Raymond; who with his wife Carol gave Violet her first granddaughter Brittney. Violet's daughter Susan and her son-in-law Kevin Connolly are the parents of Violet's "Darling" granddaughter Sarah. Sarah and Sew Sew's devotion to each other was unconditional. Our mother accepted people for who they were as long as they were caring and honest. We were blessed to have her in our lives. Friends and family will be received on Wednesday from 3-9 PM at Volk Leber Funeral Home, 268 Kinderkamack Road, Oradell. Funeral service Thursday 11 AM at the funeral home, with interment to follow at Fairview Cemetery, Fairview, NJ.
