Virginia Colaneri (nee Tuccio) passed away peacefully at home on September 15, 2018 at the age of 95 surrounded by her daughter Georgette and husband Robert. Born and raised in Jersey City, she graduated from Dickenson High School where she met the love of her life, George Colaneri (1989), at age 16. They married in 1944 and shared a glorious 45 year marriage. In 1951 they moved to New Milford where Virginia lived for 65 wonderful years. After being the consummate homemaker for half her life, she returned to work for ten years at Medical Economics, Circulation Dept., Oradell, as a memorable employee to all that knew her. Virginia is predeceased by her beloved husband George (1989), brothers Frank, Nicholas and James Tuccio, sisters Mae Soriero, Rose Daquino, Catherine Melnyk, Anne Tuccio, and survived by her loving sister Margaret Rossi. She was respected and adored by all her nieces and nephews, great nieces, nephews and lifetime friends. Her love for the family and friends was unconditional and always offered her rosary for their peace and good health. She made endless memories for all the lives she touched. “ If I can be 1/8th of the mother, wife and friend that Aunt Virginia was, then I know I'll have had a perfect life! I will never forget even when she wasn't feeling her best, she still made her famous apricot squares only because she knew how much we loved them. She even fell while making them and I will never forget how even in making apricot squares, she put others before herself. We'll see you again, our dearest Aunt!!!

“ Virginia was my neighbor for a short time but I loved her. Such a caring and kind lady. She made me so welcome when I arrived in this country, treating me better than my own family. She will be deeply missed. Love always, Jennifer
