“ It must be Destiny, my Husband and I were talking about my Aunt Ginny a few Hours ago. She was my FAVORITE Aunt and my Uncle Bob was my FAVORITE Uncle. I used to be able to go to my Aunt Ginny for ANYTHING ! She would Always listen to anything I needed to talk about. I really Admired both of them and wanted a Fabulous Marriage like they had. All Holidays at the Fergusons were Hilarious, the Cousins would sit around a table and we would laugh until, tears were running down our faces. I remember, Barbara and I found Playboy Magazines in the closet. We got busted in the closet looking at Playboy. I think about Both of them all the Time. I did luck out and Married my Soul Mate. I learned what to look for, from Uncle Bob and Aunt Ginny.

“ Ginny was a wonderful and lovely neighbor as well as a frequent email correspondent. I was very pleased to serve with her on our H.O.A . Board several years ago. Since, we have kept the matters of our neighborhood a part of our frequent communications as well as other. Her experience and background was difficult to match and she was truly a magnificent person to know. She will be missed. Bill Holub
