“ We were so saddened to hear of the passing of Mr. Harrison. He was a patient at my husbands office(Dr. Albert Wacha). We had many, many interesting and nice conversations about his travels and about Teaneck, where we both grew up and still have family. He knew several members of the Wacha clan from the schools. We will keep you in our prayers and remember Mr Harrison at Mass. We have lost a true gentleman!!! Erin Wacha###imported-begin##Erin and Albert Wacha###imported-end##

“ Janet... We all offer you our sincere condolences on the passing of Bill. He was Ricki's principal when she was student teaching in Teaneck at Emerson. Michael and Lauren both were touched by his gentleness as young children while at Longfellow. Bill was an intelligent, thoughtful, caring gentleman who now lives on in the hearts of his hundreds of students and fellow educators. May he rest in peace. “ Gentleman: A well-mannered and considerate man with high standards of proper behavior! This definition precisely defines the friend and fellow Verona Lion we all loved: Bill Harrison! Bill never said a negative or bad word about anyone. This trait became easily recognizable to anyone who came in contact with Bill and his ideals of personal conduct will always be remembered and admired. For all of these reasons Bill will ALWAYS be remembered as a very kind man, a loyal friend, and a very active, supportive Lion! GOD will surely allow Bill to rest as he lived his life- in peace!##imported-begin##Paul E. Grimes##imported-end##
