“ I'm so sorry to hear about Wilma. I met her in 2012 while feeding cats on the Hackensack-River Edge border. She was my feral cat tutor/mentor and she helped me feed the colony of feral cats we both loved. She was generous with her time and often brought me food for the cats although she lived far away. She called me in late August, 2017 but I never knew she had been sick. She was one of the few people I told when my wife died suddenly in May, 2015..she always made me feel better when I saw her at our cat colony. I was privileged to know her and I will miss her. Rest in peace, Ms. Wilma.

“ Rest in peace Titi Wilma. I have so many childhood memories of you when you would come from New York to visit mami. My sisters, Milly, Angie, Maritza and Ivette would get so excited because you would go play with us at La Monte school. You were so much fun and full of life. As we became adults we got to appreciate your sense of humor. Titi, you had such a big heart helping animals and fostering to help them find homes. You are going to be missed.

"Titi, I hope there are men in uniform in heaven"

Love you,
Carmen Smith
